My dear Sir

I am very obliged to you for your note. The communication about the Britanna is ^{through} a light on the question but does not settle the difficulty. When we saw, really, it ^{is} ~~is~~ ^{is} a mistake published by Muller with the date 1750. We think that there is that book which he had not in Britanna is of it to be found. That book is at the
B. Museum.
Your book has been printed by Muller is very likely true.

Dear Sir,

I thank you for the information about the Ancient Councils. Now, can you tell me how were elected the Deacons each year, and what were the ~~causes~~ causes of the dissilution of the institution? I heard that the Quakers and Puritans not being very fond of old local music with their gait mages, is it true?

If you have the work I allude to, in which it has been found the sketch by Pery, I will feel obliged to you to send it by post. I will return it soon

Dear Sir
Oct / 59
I have known the company of the Surge & Surgeons the General of Charles X. has I suppose it was Charlevoix's Charlevoix was his chapel master. If of importance. I have enquired in France.
I thank you very much for you

I hope you will be able to make that very soon, and hoping to hear from you again in a few days. I am very sincerely a reprint of Alfred which is advertised in the General advertiser March 20th 1745, by Mellan with these words "The March was composed by Mr. W. and performed in 1744." I should be wrong to attribute it to the 2 books of 1745 and 1751 are exactly similar. If you have you find a copy of 1745 and also one of 1740 of date I shall be happy to give you one.

I cannot understand of the book has been so much altered. I saw a March from the March in 1744 or 45 can be the same.

very carefully and did inclose the postage in my following letter.
All this belongs to the Society of Ancient Concerts. It remains to be known when pleased to exist the academy of ancient music founded in 1715 and still living in 1776 when Hawkins published his book. Did you find by chance in your voluminous readings some notes (later than 1776) on this academy?

I inclose your bill without order for payment, but I consider the loss of Alfred a little dear at as the one of 1740

Now it remains that you have seen the Music of Antient Britanica printed in 1751. (We have to ascertain if it was printed in 1745 or earlier in 1740 before, either in 1745 or earlier in 1740. The question I would you may search and happy searches.

Can you know by one way or another when was printed the Music in the July issue of 1744 printed by Col. Weylett to the end of which was added the celebrated in honour of Great Britain called Pater Britannia and Jovey and Jovey. I have some doubt that some of being printed before the Alfred by Walth and I can obtain the publication of

Mr. I generally give only 5th for these books of Walth. If my observation seems just to you you can make the deduction you put your price on the bill before sending it to Mr. Collins.

Yours Dear Sir
Very sincerely
W. Shield

I heard from Mr. Pulteney that the collection of Lady Shall will be sold very soon but I did not see your side the catalogue shall you assist to these my part an auction?

Many thanks indeed for the hand book of St Paul.
That copy will do perfectly well

Yours very sincerely
