January 25th / 60

Dear Sir,

I will be glad to take advantage of your return in the Leipzig Catalogue and to hear your wife's arrangement of the Martellian.

If the third of February is convenient to her and to you, pray let me know, for I intend take it down that day.

You told me Mr L. will let me have the book of the Academy but you do not speak any more of

Dear Sir

I forget you asked for the "Personage" of Alpharab

They are

- Alpharab (Medici)
- Dardanus (17th & 18th Sec)
- Melisso (Schoneweth)
- Oriana (18th Sec. Hobson)
- Organde ( ? )

Dear Sir

What a great disappointment!

I find that Alpharab has no date! so there is not any certainly that is the title of the performance of Oxford.

It is not I know an intended deception from the part of Mr Pothol but it is a very bad mistake for me. He has been deceived himself by the M.S. index which is at the beginning of the book. I do not know what to do,

Dear Sir,

Please to send me <sup>the</sup> book the book when are the long of many methods etc and let me know the price.

I am very much obliged to you know you care for all kinds of letters. I gave one month ago a very good one (of Crutcher) to Mr P. Pothol of Crickenham.

For the present I have only in my collection Crutcher of Crutcher, with an index by Professor. I published M.S. in my opinion in 1752. I am M.S. in 1782. I know Blomfield M.S. etc. I am M.S. in 1782. I know about 1760 +

Dear Sir

The books have not yet arrived. The alphabetical brought some thing that warning but we have. I hope they will be some more by your kind note mentioning
one of them of our time

it. I hope you are not so shamefully, horribly, monstrously selfish as to keep it for you. Will you not send it to me? We shall always agree about the price.

Believe me to remain
Yours very sincerely

Thank you for the notice about the book.

Yours very faithfully

If I have not the liberty of Amadigi I know only one copy which is at the British Museum

It was "Mariani's" at Alton was his dog's name. If of importance I can give me know.
I thank you very much for

Ms. G. 1. 1. 1.

Wednesday

The book is of no value at all for me for I have already the pamphlets which could be better interested me in it. You wrote to me it contained Mariani's 17th & 18th plates but I do not see them.
I conclude you found them in some other book. I should like very much to see them if you have no objection to give with them.

I am sure the original edition is not the right one found at Oxford, for they have a copy of it at the British Museum and that is it.

I may tell <sup>me know</sup> which you gave for the book. Perhaps the best plan is to send it back for the next mutual sale

Yours very sincerely
