Dear Sir

I have been so ill and I am still so poorly and also I am so busy in removing from here that I left many letters unanswered. Yours containing the kindly the information about Swiny came safely in hand.
I know the document, as far as it

Dear Sir

I am a hole for you I believe. I believe I believe and I believe and I believe you can send for them when you like, they will be returned to the bearer of a word from you.
You know the price

Dear Sir

I thank you for your good wishes but unfortunately I cannot say that I am better.

I see that Mr. Pultich is selling next Thursday Sept 4. The Iron Works
Patent (Lot 774) 3/11

Dear Sir

I was detained in town for some illness, I could not manage to be there day of the Handel festival. I am back only
on Saturday.

Out of your bag, book of Handbills I should like to have the list following.
1. Mrs. W. Egge's printed by W. W. W. W.

Friday

Dear Sir

Very kindly you sent the out of books. Now and I could of course to see it only to say as I have sent to the publisher the day I saw you. I believe the books, I have taken of price out of the books and

I will let you know again when I am at Cambridge.

I fear the harvest from these fields will be small as the greater number of the leaves are after the first of March but I have made the observation I cannot say any thing further

For the present weather I can't call upon you we shall look for some of them

Yours truly
W. H. W.

2° Saint Leger and Barker

3° Georgia in 1859

4° The Story of Seneca County NY

5° S' Allegre and its suburbs printed by the Executors of Watts and sold by Corvies

6° A Song for St. Cecilia's

Without any date nor title I believe this was belonged to some other St. Cecilia's it had at the head a flourish some thing like this

These are the only ones I have seen. They are them at least as it is possible to do so

Yours truly
W. H. W.
