Dearest

I thank very much and I am glad the things I did not go high. I received yesterday the book with Israel, 1739! I see the richest man in England. The other things will be here for me.

I shall have the pleasure of seeing you about on Monday

Dear Sir

I was sorry to not meet you yesterday. I will keep the book sent by your father if he says they are worth the price for there are in them some very famous collectors.

I returned a few weeks ago because I have in my possession a great quantity of old MSS.

Please tell me with
