

Steinboche

My dear Friend,

I have not the
"chant de John Brown" ; je l'ai cherché partout, aujourd'hui sans rien trouver. Je regrette ne pouvoir, dans ces circonstances, vous être agréable.
Comme vous, en nouvelles

Dear Sir

I do not know of even any body who can tell to-day the "chant de John Brown" ; je regrette ne pouvoir, dans ces circon-
stances, vous être agréable.
Comme vous, en nouvelles

Why should you not have it after the getting of abstracts collected in the

24 Wellington Square

Dear Sir

I return 24 pieces of gold
and the little book of 10 minutes

3 pieces from W. M. Leader and Co. which I had long since ago. They amount to 8 Will you be kind enough to attach them to exchange these 3 pieces

Dear Sir

Your father and you do me an honor in wishing to do
- take to me your intended collection of unknown works of Howard. I accept the honour and I thank you for it.

Yours truly

de la' bas, me font esperer que bientôt nous devons voir la fin de cette hideuse guerre civile, et la chute de M.
 Davis et ses confères. Toutfois Grant a devant lui de la besogne pas mal.
 Annie va bien, merci.

Elle travaille toujours, et son professeur est après tant d'elle. J'espère la voir Samedi prochain.

Je vous serre la
 main très cordialement

I send back also the Les Concertos in order to get sheet 19. as they give by mistake two sheets 21.

Do not look for the overture of Henry the IV and Tomelli's Chaconne. I found them at M<sup>r</sup> Robertson's who is owing me some shillings out of an old transaction.

There are two copies of Minale's. I found both. In one of them there are many things by in the hand writing of the great man.

Yours very sincerely
 V. Schalech

return the three catalogues for which I give you many thanks. Who is your Neoplatonist? his catalogue has many things of interest.

I had from Mr. Chappell information of a book in which there are descriptions of passages concerning Plato's letters of Benjamin Victor. I got the book and these passages are really new and interesting.
I will be glad to give you your extracts.

Mr Chappell writes to me that

Dr Gaultier is mistaken and that the book of Severinus he spoke of is nothing but a Anthology Franciscana!!!

Yours Dear Sir, very
sincerely,

Michael Lotz
