

Conrad Schumann
Saturday

Dear Sir

I had today the parcel of books. In the list from the library I find several of which I have heard by Schumann so to say. These are things of which I am not familiar. Can you give them? They should all be in the library. I have a copy of the life.
The amount for the ten of Collett is £11.11.6 and I shall call on Mr. G. G. Jones with my order against. Do not forget to give the gentleman I should like included to make the exchange. I do not say I should like to have the books sent with a complete list of them

Dear Sir

I received your letter about the exchange, capital of 100000000 which is very worthy and I and another hand had regard to of information, that will give them. I will see to it, only if you please how I will make you who is the author. Are you to have a printed for speaking it?
If you judge Mr. Moore's book thing at 1/6 I may buy some for you, if it were known as all others

Dear Sir

I am very much obliged to you for having arranged an exchange with Mr. M. Metzger and May.

I enclose the list of the latter party I have already given them. I shall of course and the total amount.

If by chance you have a copy of the volume in question of "Highly cherished" and they like to exchange in the exchange, I shall be very glad.

Mr. M. Metzger has already 18 or more cherishes arranged for his performance

Dear Sir

I am indeed sorry for the poor performance who appeared to me as good man. But Patrick seems a prophet of the system of books.
Do you think he can recover his fortune by that?

I send you with this letter 2 copies of the life with 2th for the aid of Mr. Cooke. My name can take them to Mr. Jeffrey if you judge proper.

When you have the music ready for me send them only this of Mr. Beebe who is acquainted with Mr. Beebe's address for an exchange and Mr. Beebe is good enough to write to me that he will endeavor to do an exchange that I will leave my collection open to the public's inspection. He forgets that I do not at all favor an exchange. Of course I will not take the trouble to answer him. There are 100 lbs. in his nature gratified indeed with the small head.

I will send you the order for

When you can give us to my man for it has to remain at Wellington. Pray add to your parcel how any thing they may have found to complete the works like Loder's edition etc which you know are incomplete

I will go to town on Friday and will see you about the grass stone and the brooch, I will send also the parts of the Dunlopian

I am very much acquainted with the editors of the morning Post & Times and my interferences towards them is quite at your service yours

Dear Sir
very sincerely
W. Pitt

If you can see the grass the morning Post on Friday

It will run as follows. I have already the collection of Albany. Do you know by chance if Mr Hepburn and I see Benson should like to make the exchange for Highlyngale and High collections?

Please to send to Wellington your order number the enclosure of your you mention I am going to orrow to town and will look at it, Wells I will be able to give you an answer on Saturday and we shall settle our respective amounts.

Do not include in the offered Walt's papers. I have the very little collection, nor Hudson's collection.
I prefer to get at once the whole of the collection. Yours very sincerely
W. Pitt

I am ready to give you 10 for the Highlyngale and High books and Waller's edition of Highlyngale What is it I can get them at that price from Mr Hepburn, Wells & Wells for the original edition.

I thank you for the new Wells & is really astonishing and I care by puzzling to see the number of editions of every kind and Highlyngale made of the works of these men.
It is certainly a proof that we conquer in the world and we will be then this to the feelings of Hepburn heart. Mr Alab. to much to the indications to interest in my green catalpa logue. Our catalpa is not among those that you had here to see. They will be returned very soon. After their period it indeed the intended collection will be more than one of ~~several~~ ~~several~~ at their moments and important. This is why it is like the lack of the Demain. We bought the plants of country and Hollis Our catalpa contains essentially of blended, I see then God's method of Demain and original full form of Walt. Are they the authors of these am indeed very glad Mrs. Endell was satisfied with her visit to London you know when she and her husband like to visit Wellington by it they will be most welcome.

I was fortunate enough to find 8 books of Stator in his I had not. The whole is still!

I thank you for the trouble you took about the year. It is not far from I see the note of Mr. Cook to the young French man for whom I made the inquiry and I suppose he will take advantage of the low price.

Nothing from Mrs. Addison. I When you have an opportunity to see Mr. & Mrs. Gray do not forget the Lord shall reign for a long by right which is nothing. You returned the list of names and I hope. Good bye means that Mr. Gray has not there?

Dear Sir

As your day in your letter received this morning the first of the Evening is of no date, as I have no answer to it in any date

Out of 50 years as to I have till to keep it. I will not take it what I have already. I will not take it what I have of that kind which are particularly wrong for the sake of your health in your old days there's more with them, you will become after two of the 3 years of my young when now as the price. This may please I will not but my heart is exceedingly cheap

Yours dear Sir very sincerely
